The club offers an intimate setting where attendees can enjoy world-class amenities while witnessing the thrilling conclusion of each round.

Origins and Significance

Originally established as a legendary viewing spot during the Wells Fargo Championship, the Green Mile has become synonymous with high-end golf hospitality. For the Presidents Cup, it has been expanded and enhanced to accommodate a larger number of guests, offering a comprehensive experience that marries luxury, exclusivity, and the passion of golf.

What Will the Green Mile Club Provide?

Premium Hospitality and Dining

Guests of the Green Mile Club will enjoy access to a luxurious hospitality suite featuring:

- Gourmet catering with a selection of locally inspired and international cuisine

- Premium beverages, including fine wines, craft beers, and top-shelf spirits
- Dedicated waitstaff providing personalized service throughout the day
- Comfortable seating and shaded viewing areas overlooking the 18th green

Exclusive Viewing Experience

The Green Mile provides an unrivaled vantage point to watch the final moments of each round, with:

- Close proximity to the action on the 18th hole
- Large viewing screens for real-time updates and replays
- Sound systems broadcasting commentary and player interviews

This setup ensures guests are immersed in the tournament's drama, from clutch putts to dramatic finishes.

Networking and Entertainment Opportunities

The Green Mile Club isn't just about viewing; it's also a hub for networking with influential figures, PGA Tour players, and other VIP guests. The experience includes:

- Meet-and-greet sessions with players and tournament officials
- Exclusive access to player practice rounds and clinics
- Participation in special events, giveaways, and raffles

Additionally, curated entertainment options and music performances will add to the festive atmosphere.
