We will delve into their formation, musical style, and the impact they aim to make in a traditionally male-dominated genre.

The Birth of an All Female Guitar Septet

A Vision for Change and Empowerment

The idea of forming an all-female guitar septet emerged from a shared desire among talented women guitarists to showcase their skills and challenge stereotypes. Recognizing the lack of prominent visibility for women in the guitar world, these musicians decided to unite their talents to create something unique and inspiring.

Meeting and Formation

The septet was formed through a series of auditions, social media connections, and mutual collaborations. Each member brought her own style and influences, ranging from jazz and blues to rock and experimental genres. The group's diversity in musical backgrounds adds richness to their sound and allows for a broad repertoire.
