

Underline The Adjectives And Say Whether They Are Attributive Or Predicative.a) It Was A Beautiful Play.

Underline The Adjectives And Say Whether They Are Attributive Or Predicative.a) It Was A Beautiful Play.

Understanding the role of adjectives in sentences is crucial for mastering English grammar. In the sentence "It was a beautiful play," the adjectives serve specific functions that influence how we interpret and analyze the sentence. This article will explore the different types of adjectives, focusing on the adjectives used in the example, and will provide detailed explanations of attributive and predicative adjectives. By the end, you'll have a clear understanding of how adjectives work and how to identify their roles within sentences.

What Are Adjectives?

Adjectives are words that describe or modify nouns and pronouns. They give us more information about the qualities, quantities, or states of the nouns they modify. For instance, in the sentence "The red car is fast," the adjective red describes the noun car. Adjectives are essential in adding detail and making sentences more vivid and precise.

Types of Adjectives:

- Attributive Adjectives: These adjectives are directly placed before the noun they modify. For example, in "a beautiful play," beautiful is attributive.

- Predicative Adjectives: These adjectives follow a linking verb and describe the subject of the sentence. For example, in "The play was beautiful," beautiful is predicative.

Analyzing the Sentence "It Was A Beautiful Play"

The sentence in question is: "It was a beautiful play." Let's break it down to identify adjectives and their functions.

Identifying the Adjectives

In this sentence, the key adjective is beautiful. It describes the noun play.

- The phrase a beautiful play contains the adjective beautiful modifying the noun play.
- The adjective beautiful provides information about the quality of the play.

Role of the Article "a"

While "a" functions as an indefinite article, it is not an adjective per se, but it does modify the noun play. For clarity, we focus on beautiful as the descriptive adjective.

Attributive Vs. Predicative Adjectives: Definitions and Examples

To fully understand the role of beautiful in this sentence, we need to compare attributive and predicative adjectives.

Attributive Adjectives

Definition: Adjectives that are placed directly before the noun they describe.

Examples:

- The red apple
- A happy child
- The ancient ruins

Characteristics:

- They appear immediately before the noun.
- They are a part of the noun phrase.

In our sentence:

- Beautiful is an attributive adjective when it is used in the phrase a beautiful play.

Predicative Adjectives

Definition: Adjectives that follow a linking verb and describe the subject of the sentence.

Examples:

- The play was beautiful.
- The sky looks blue.
- She seems